General Comment

I disagree that we have not done our part. It is understandable and clear! If we require ID to have a credit card, get a loan, buy alcohol, drive, get insurance the is no reason we cannot expect an ID to be present when voting. Worrying about accessibility make it mandatory that business provide 4 hours paid time off to go vote then regardless if you have 1 or 10 jobs you will get the time to exercise your right. Allow folks the ability to have someone go to thier home to complete thier ballot. We get so bogged down over simple things. So many options that I could think of there is no way in hell that all folks with disabilities are home bound I know for God's sake I am not stuck at home even with my disability. Use ADA just like you do in other sectors it should be able to be applied. Just saying!
